

The FCC should leave the Indiana telephone privacy act alone. I have enjoyed not worrying about answering my phone and if a telemarketer is going to be on the other end. thank you